Dear Alex:

Just a note to express our thanks for the consulting work you've done for us on shopping bag design over the past year. This has been an exciting project area and we are especially grateful for your creative ideas and the market knowledge that you have brought to the project. In addition, your contacts in the industry have enabled us to move much more quickly than we otherwise could have moved. The attitude of commitment and can-do to make the project succeed and to meet the goals have been most admirable and we sincerely appreciate all of your efforts.

Here's looking forward to real success for you and for this project.

Very truly yours,

J.M. Salladay
